THE HYPNOTIST

(C.Robertson 2003)

Cm6 G7
(Cm6=2333)
I went down to a part of town I'd never been before
Cm6 G7
Saw a sign, a strange design in paint upon the door
Fm Fm7 Cm6 (Fm=1013, Fm7=1313)
It seemed to say a cabaret was going on inside
D7 G7
It was locked, but when I knocked, the door swung open wide.

The room was filled with people of varied dress and age
the lights grew dim and a hypnotist walked out upon the stage
he bade me to come up and help and pointed to a chair
when I went up and sat down, he held me in his stare:

Cm6 G7 Bdim (1212)
chorus: His gaze was so hypnotic, he put me in a trance,
Cm6 G7 Bdim
he made me bark just like a dog and do a silly dance.
Fm Fm7 Cm6
And I don't remember anything at all
D7 G7
Until I woke at the police station staring at these walls.

They told me they had found me, a knife lay at my feet
Standing on a doorstep on an unfamiliar street
And when they looked inside they found a woman dead
She was the wife of a hypnotist, one policeman said.

(chorus)

People say you can't be made to act against your will
People say you can't be made to take a knife and kill
But here I sit in spite of it, alone in this cold cell
And curse the day I saw his gaze and ended up in hell.

(chorus)

"I went down to a part of town I never been before..."
